ARREST SUSPECT AS PICKPOCKET

Police Believe They Have Man Who Robbed Henry Crump of $3,500.

HAS POLICE RECORD.

Arrested in Many Cities, According to Police Records—Declares Police Have Framed up Job on Him.

In the arrest by the Alexandria police last night of Charles Mayer, alias Thomas Sullivan, alias Frank Morris, who is suspected of having been implicated in the robbery of Charles A. Clements, disbursing officer of the patent office, whose pocket was picked of $1,000 in an elevator in Washington, a week ago, the police believe that they have also captured one of the men who stole $3,500 from Henry Crump, runner of the First National Bank of this city, about five years ago. The description of Mayer was identical with that of one of the men who were near Crump when the latter was robbed and the bank runner called at the Police station this morning to see if he could identify the prisoner. Mayer had been taken to Washington by Detective Burlingame and Crump went there to see if he could identify the man.

Crump was robbed on a street car in Washington. He had gone from here on business connected with the First National Bank when his pocket was picked.

Mayer was arrested last night at 11 o'clock in the lobby of the Hotel Rammel by Policeman Kern. Early yesterday [illegible] police intercepted a telegram from a man named Eagan addressed to Mayer in Richmond asking him to come to Alexandria yesterday and bring $500 to bail out a man held in jail in Washington accused of having robbed Paymaster Clements.

The Washington authorities sent to arrest Mayer when he appeared. The Washington detectives spent the afternoon here but went home last night, having given information to William Rammel, one of the proprietors of the hotel, of their reasons for being in the city. Shortly before eleven o'clock Mayer apeared on the scene and asked Mr. Rammel if there had been any one inquiring for him. Rammel asked him his name and he was told that he expected to meet a Mr. Egan. The Alexandria police headquarters were notified that the man was at the hotel, and Officer Kern was sent to make the arrest.

The policeman was in plain clothes, and when he called Mayer aside the latter thought that he had been sent by Egan and followed him from the hotel. When on the sidewalk he placed the man under arrest and although Mayer made vehement protestations of his innocence and angry threats of reprisals he was locked up in police station. He refused to make any statement but gave his name as Thomas Sullivan. He was extremely well dressed, wearing clothes of the latest cut and a brown velous hat.

Detective Burlingame came from Washington this morning and carried the prisoner to that city.

In spite of the fact that he declined to tell anything about himself, except to say that his arrest was a "frame-up," the police had little trouble in finding his picture and record in the criminal identification bureau. Confronted with a picture of himself taken in Baltimore in 1907, under the name of Thomas Ryan, Sullivan admitted it was his photograph, but claimed he was acquitted of the charge on which he was arrested in Baltimore. The records do not show the disposition of the case.

The records show that Sullivan is known as Ryan, Stone, and Maher, and has been arrested in Baltimore, Yonkers, N. Y.; New York City; Omaha, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Providence, R. I.; and St. Louis.

The records show that Mason was arrested in Omaha in August, 1909, as a pickpocket and was sentenced to eighteen months in the Nebraska State penitentiary. In St. Louis he was arrested in 1907 under the name of Sullivan and was fined $100.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A dispatch from Pensacola, Fla., says the launch High Ball with five men aboard, is believed to have been lost in the gale that swept Escambia Bay Sunday. All efforts to find the craft were futile. The boat, which was built for speed and not for rough weather, started from Pensacola to Milton Sunday night just before the gale struck the bay. Ordinarily the trip would require only a few hours.

Holding that the indictment against Thomas E. Watson, editor, author, and once presidental candidate, of the Populist party, with sending obscene matter through the mails was illegal, Federal Judge Rufus E. Foster, yesterday at Augusta, Ga., had the case thrown out of court.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty yesterday at Ellsworth, Me., for John B. Henderson, of Bar Harbor and Washington, wealthy son of the late Senator Henderson of Missouri, accused by Miss Elizabeth L. Garmong, of Des Moines, of being the father of her three year-old girl. Miss Garmong has a breach of promise suit pending against Mr. Henderson for $100,000.

Six men were killed, four injured, and all Staten Island was plunged in darkness, and deprived of trolley car service by the explosion of two mammoth boilers yesterday evening in the plant of the Richmond Light and Power Company, at Livingston.

An appeal to members of the Masonic fraternity throughout the world to enlist their efforts in promoting the propaganda for universal peace was made last night by Charles F. Buck at the annual dinner of the Royal Order of Scotland, composed of Scottish Rite Masons of both the Northern and Southern jurisdictions, at Rauscher's in Washington. The annual dinner of the Royal Order of Scotland is the only function held under the auspices of that organization at which women are invited to be present, and last night practically every one of the several hundred members present was accompanied by wife or daughter.

Mrs. William Harwood, her two small sons, 8 and 3 years of age, and her mother, Mrs. Frank Weeks, of Chicago Junction, Ohio, were instantly killed yesterday at Nova, when a buggy in which they were riding was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio express train.

A mob attacked the Jewish quarter of the village of Sasnowitch, Russian Poland, yesterday, charging that a girl had been slain for "ritual purposes." The rioters were driven off, and it was later ascertained that the girl's injuries had been self-sustained. Crying for the blood of the Ghetto residents, the mob made a murderous attack, and a number of persons were injured. Houses were stoned and pedestrians in the streets clubbed.

Men and women beggars—cripples, sightless and deformed of Los Angeles, Cal., have organized a union to fight an order of the city, driving them from street corners.

Great excitement was caused yesterday in Madrid during the funeral of Alejandro Pidal, a prominent politician, who died on Sunday. His body was being taken to the station, to be sent to Covadonga, his home, with a procession marching behind the coffin, when the police arrested a young man, dressed as a workman, who acted suspiciously, trying to reach the head of the procession. He resisted, was searched, and a loaded revolver was found in his possession. It is said that he admitted at the police station that his intention was to kill Premier Romanones, who marched behind the coffin.

MUCH DAMAGE BY WIND AND RAIN

Counties Bordering on The Chesapeake Bay Suffer Great Loss.

ISLAND WASHED AWAY

Wharves and Railroad Tracks Submerged, Farm Lands Ruined and Boats Swamped and Lost.

Salisbury, Md., Oct. 22.—The high tide of almostt idal wave proportions raised by the sixty-mile gale that blew across the Chesapeake Bay swept clear over Sharps Island. A considerable portion of the Island has been washed away. No lives were lost, but great damage was done. Little detailed information can be secured, as all comunication with the island was cut off by the storm.

Reports from Bay Hundred and St. Michael's district state that many acres of land on the Choptank river side were washed away by the water. Slowly subsiding, the waters of the Chesapeake Bay are leaving a trail of ruin along the tidewater districts of Talbot and the adjoining counties. Thousands of acres of farm lands had been ruined, being saturated with salt water. Steamboat piers for miles along the Eastern Shore were completely submerged. Reports from Ocean City state that Sinepuxtent Bay rose six feet during the night, submerging the railroad ridge and cutting off all communication with the mainland.

Many of the smaller towns of the Eastern Shore are still cut off from communication with the outside world. Wires anre down and trees and telegrapah poles block the roads.

The two-masted schooner William McNamee was carried upon the shore of Lankford Bay and her crew had a narrow escape. Over 300 feet of track o fthe line between Love Point and Princess Anne were washed away. Traffic has been resumed, however. In other places the tracks kere five feet under water. Miles of river and other tributaries of the bay are dotted with small craft driven from their moorings. Passengers on bay steamers had an exciting experience, as it was the worst storm on the Chesapeake in twenty years.

Along the Nanticoke river numbers off oyster boats were swamped. A part of this town was flooded.

ACTRESS KILLED AT THEATRE.

Diving Girl Falls While Rehearsing Act Behind Sscenes.

New York, Oct. 22.— While a large audience in an uptown theatre was laughing of the antics of a comedian at the matinee performance day, Gladys Kelly, one of the sextette of diving girls, fell from a diving board in which she was rehearsing in the rear of the stage, out of sight of the audience and received injuries from which she died a few hours later. Not a person in the audience knew of the tragedy behind the scenes, and even Miss Kelly's partners in the diving act were not told of the serious nature of her injuries until they had finished their act.

While the stage was being set for the act a comedian was amusing the audience in front of a drop curtain. A few minutes before the time for the curtain to rise Miss Kelly stood on the diving board and lightly balanced herself, ready for the curtain's rise. Then she suddenly lost her balance and fell forward, head first. Her head struck the edge of the tank and she fell to the floor of the stage 10 feet below.

NATIONAL OFFICERS HERE.

Visit of Heads of Daughters of Isabella Yesterday.

The national officers of the Order of the Daughters of Isabella, were visitors to Alexandria yesterday. They went to Mt. Vernon where they placed a wreath on the tomb of Washington. Upon arrival in Alexandria, on their return, the party was met by the officers and members of Kavanaugh Court, No. 54, of this city, and were taken in automobiles to the Hotel Rammel where an elaborate luncheon was served. The parlors of the hotel were decorated in yellow and purple, the colors of the order, and chrysanthemums were used in the greatest profusion.

WINTER ALL OVER EAST.

Snow Also Reported as Far West as South Dakota.

The season's first touch of wintry weather was general yesterday east of the Mississippi.

Shifting gales, which whipped the Middle Atlantic coast and the lake region, had hooted their way to sea, leaving crisp, cool areas behind the promises of light snow in some sections. General frosts yesterday touched the South Atlantic region, as far down as Florida, and there was freezing weather through the Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

In the North Atlantic States a decided drop of the mercury occurred. Storm warnings were ordered up from Sandy Hook to Eastport.

ANTI-FEE SYSTEM FIGHT.

Clerks Rake Off Annually Six Times Salary Paid Governor.

The fate of the fee system in Virginia hangs largely on the result of the municipal election to be held November 4, in Norfolk, and as a consequence, the hard fought political contest in that city is being watched with keen interest by Virginians.

Norfolk City and Norfolk county constitute the Gibraltar of the fee system, it is said. Ten officials of the city and county performing state duties, draw, it is said, an aggregate of $150,000 in fees annually for their services, an amount greater than is paid in salaries to the governor and other state officials in Richmond and the members of the General Assembly.

TRIAL OF MRS. EATON.

Witnesses From Washington Take the Stand.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 22.—A reference to "a wealthy friend in Chicago," who wanted Mrs. Jennie May Eaton to leave her husband, was introduced today by the prosecution as showing a possible motive in the trial of Mrs. Eaton, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton.

The evidence was given in the testimony of Mrs. Marshall Bursey, of Washington, D. C., who said that eight months before the death of the admiral Mrs. Eaton told her of the Chicago man and his proposal.

According to Mrs. Bursey, Mrs. Eaton did not disclose to her the name of the alleged friend, but said that he owned much property, and had promised to leave it all to her.

Mrs. Eaton told the witness that Admiral Eaton had attacked her several times at night, and at one time she awoke to find him injecting medicine into her arm.

Mrs. Eaton also said, according to Mrs. Bursey, that she was going to have the admiral examined by an expert, and if he was found to be insane "have him put away."

During her stay in Washington, the witness said, Mrs. Eaton received much mail postmarked Chicago.

Mrs. Sarah R. Ducher, a clerk in the investigating bureau of children and guardians in Washington, said that while calling the attention of the District court to the case of a child who was not receiving proper attention at an orphanage, Mrs. Eaton, asked her to destroy all the records in the case, saying that her name was Owens and that she was the grandmother of the child. Later Mrs. Eaton gave several other names, and finally admitted that she was the wife of a naval officer. The case was finally settled, and Mrs. Eaton took the child.

MANY IMBECILES IN THE STATE

Number Placed at Five Thousand By Student of Heredity.

STARTLING FIGURES.

Lecturer Tells Young Men's Christian Association What New Jersey is Doing For Unfortunates.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 22.—Alexander Johnson, who is at the head of the forward movement for the prevention of feeblemindedness, last night addressed an audience of mission and slum workers in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association.

His lecture of the work being done at Vineland, N. J., was given close attention, and at the close of the lecture many accepted the invitation and asked for enlightenment on details which he had been forced to skim over during the course of his address.

The lecture was illustrated by the stereopticon slides, showing the various types under the care of the Training School for the Feebleminded at Vineland and the pedigrees of the inmates and the means taken to care for the weaker members of society, which have become burdens on the state.

"The feeble-minded are not criminals," declared Mr. Johnson during his lecture.

"There are 5,000 feeble-minded persons in your State of Virginia," declared Mr. Johnson during the course of his lecture, "and this is not mere guess work, for records of that number of cases have been made. These persons are not criminals that they should be locked in jails and penitentiaries and punished for things for which they are not responsible. They are good in heart and easily managed, we in Vineland having had exceedingly few cases in the hundreds which have come under our care which have not been.

"These feeble-minded women are unable to care for themselves. They need protection, and that is the purpose of the institution at Vineland. We are not doing our duty as Christians if we fail to do our share in caring for them. As a father I give my daughters protection, control and oversight, and it is the duty of the Commonwealth to do the same for the feeble-minded and the epileptics. In the New Jersey institution we believe that happiness comes first and that after it will come all other things possible for those weak in minds, and among them goodness."

Mr. Johnson will speak in Alexandria on October 30th, under the auspices of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

TRYING TO SAVE FRANK.

Is Under Sentensce of Death For Murdering Mary Phagan.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Attorneys for Leo M. Frank and the Solicitor General completed an exchange of affidavits preparatory to argument on a motion asking a new trial for the man convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan. Affidavits of the defense allege, among other things, that two jurors in the cases were prejudiced. The Solicitor General's affidavits seek to impeach affidavits offered by the defense. Arguments are set for tomorrow.

Detectives in Atlanta and Birmingham are working to uncover what they claim will prove to be an attempt at blackmail in connection with the Phagan murder case. The arrest of Ira W. Fisher on a charge of criminal libel is expected, according to the police, to be followed by other arrests.

Fisher's statement to the chief of police in Birmingham that he could prove another man and not Leo M. Frank killed Mary Phagan, the factory girl murdered here last April, revived interest in the unusual case. Attorneys for Frank, who has been convicted and sentenced to hang, had Fisher brought to Atlanta. His story, in which he accused a well-known Atlanta furniture dealer of the crime, was retold to the attorneys. That they discredited his story was indicated late yesterday when they turned Fisher over to local detectives.

Fisher was closely questioned by Chief of Detectives Lanford and was confronted by the man he accused of the crime.

Thorughout the ordeal Fisher refused to alter his story. His arrest on a charge of criminal libel followed a few hours later. According to records kept at police headquarters Fisher has been arrested four times in Atlanta charged with wife beating. He is 35 years old. After his last arrest Mrs. Fisher filed suit ofr divorce, This case is pending.

SYNOD OF VIRGINIA MEETS IN DANVILLE

Dr. Thompson, of West Virginia, is Elected New Moderator.

ATTENDANCE IS GOOD.

Retiring Moderator Preaches Opening Sermon on Relations Between Church and State.

Danville, Va., Oct. 22.—From three states the Presbyterians have been coming to attend the twelfth session of the Synod of Virginia, which opened last night with a large attendance of ministers and elders. The homes of Danville have been thrown open with true hospitality and all the visitors are being well taken care of.

The meeting is being held in the handsome new edifice of the First Church, which has brought forth many expressions of admiration from the members of the Synod. When the opening session began the house was well filled with a large congregation.

The retiring moderator, Rev. B. T. Wellford, D. D., of Newport News, had the assistance of Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, D. D., and Rev. F. T. McFadden, D. D., both of Richmond, in the opening services. Rev. W. R. Laird, D. D., the pastor of the church, gave the synod a cordial and heartfelt welcome.

Dr. Wellford announced as his text the words of the Saviour as recorded in Luke 20-25, 'Render Unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and unto God the Things That are God's" and as his subject, "The Relationship of the Church and the State, Where One Terminates and the Others Ends, And Our Duty to Each.'

He said the business of the church is to make men and the business of men to make the State. When nominations for moderator were called for, Rev. W. C. Campbell, D. D., of Roanoke, nominated Rev. Ernest Thompson, D. D., of Charleston, W. Va., Rev. F. E. Clark, of Grundy, nominated Rev. F. T. McFadden, of Richmond, Dr. McFadden asked that his name be withdrawn in order that Dr. Thompson might be elected, but this was not granted

When the vote was taken Dr. Thompson received ninety-three votes and Dr. McFadden received seventy-four. Rev. Micheaux Raine, of Danville, and Rev. T. W. Hooper, Jr., of Culpeper, were elected temporary clerks.

HAS SOUTHERN PENSION PLAN.

General Young Wants $60,000,000 War Cotton Tax Used.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Members of Congress received Monday letters from General Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, proposing a plan whereby the $60,000,000 collected by the Federal government as a direct tax upon cotton immediately following the civil war can be disposed of. This tax the Supreme Court has declared illegal and the fund is now in the Treasury.

General Young asks members of the House and Senate to apportion the fund among the several Southern States for pensioning Southern survivors of the war and the widows of the Confederate dead. He thinks this would be an equitable and generous way of returning to the people of the South money unlawfully taken from them by the government.

The sum is the result of a levy upon individual cotton growers of the South and was regarded at the time as a punishment as well as a means of forcing the South to pay a share of the cost of the war. Though the Supreme Court held the tax unconstitutional it was not discontinued until $60,000,000 had accumulated in the Treasury.

Most of the original receipts given the cotton owners from their product have been lost or destroyed, therefore it is impossible to return the money direct to its owners.

Attending the meeting were Messrs. Chas. Bendheim, R. T. Cook, Albert Bryan, F. M. Hill, Oscar Phillips, S. P. Fisher and Howard W. Smith. None of the Democratic nominees for office will have opposition in the election, but it is the desire of the committee to get out as large a vote as possible.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

DESPERADO CAPTURED.

Killed One Man and Fatally Wounded Another.

Luray, Va., Oct. 22.—Fleeing from four deputy sheriffs of Madison county, Charles T. Sisk, reputed to be a desperado, whose home is in the wilds of the Blue Ridge of that county, was arrested here Monday by Deputy Sheriff Renalds, Chief of Police Slusher and Special Deputy Bohannon.

Sisk on the evening before had shot and killed W. A. Dodson and mortally wounded a man named Berry in a desperate running battle in the Blue Ridge, near the line between Page and Madison counties. Pursuing him all night in the mountains, the four deputy sheriffs about daylight learned that Sisk ha dmade his way to this county on horseback. The officers headed for Luray, where they had been informed Sisk was going to sell his horse.

Finding himself closely followed, Sisk turned into a local livery stable, where he was confronted by the three Luray officials who called on him to surrender. Seeing that escape was impossible, Sisk threw up his hands while seated on his horse. He was hurried to the Page county jail and taken in charge by the four Madison deputy sheriffs.

Sisk was released from the penitentiary a short time ago, having served a term for killing a man. Later he is said to have been implicated in another murder in Madison county. He is declared to be a terror to the officers in that county.

Sisk said that while acting as peacemaker between Dodson and Berry, who were engaged in a fight, they set upon him, chasing him and firing as he ran.

Sisk says the men overtook him just as he attempted to scale a fence and that while he was on the ground, Dodson attempted to strike him with a stone. Then he says he shot Dodson through the heart, and while still on the ground mortally wounded Berry. Sisk also says he had incurred the enmity of the men by informing on illicit distilling.

Officials assert that the three men got into a quarrel over their lifting [illegible]

Handcuffed, Sisk was placed astride his horse and the trip through a blinding snow storm in the Blue Ridge was begun to Madison Courthouse. Sisk rode between two of the sheriffs, two others being in the rear.

POLK MILLER'S FUNERAL.

Service at Second Presbyterian Church This Afternoon.

Richmond, Oct. 22.—The funeral of Polk Miller, who died suddenly at his home at Bon Air on Monday night, took place this afternoon from the Second Presbyterian Church. The interment was made in Hollywood cemetery.

The church service was conducted by Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, in which Mr. Miller was at one time a member of the board of deacons, assisted by Rev. E. M. McCluer, D. D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Bon Air, in which Mr. Miller was an elder at the time of his death.

A detail from R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, Confederate Veterans, attended the funeral.

Delegations also attended from Dove Lodge, No. 51, A. F., & A. M., and from the Royal Arcanum, Elks and other orders in which Mr. Miller

STOL[illegible]RFOLK.

Government Barg[illegible]ten Ammunition, Escaped.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 22.—The estimates of damage by shifting gales, which swept the coast here Monday, place the loss as low as $40,000. A government ammunition barge, with $50,000 worth of ammunition aboard, reported sunk, is safe at the navy yard.

The steamer Tordenskjold is at drydock for repairs, after collision with a barge as is the steamer Sturton. The Lucigen, also in collision, was but little damaged and proceeded to England.

NOT TO CLOSE GIRLS' HOME.

Institution Was Indicted by Grand Jury as Nuisance.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 22.—The Virginia Home and Industrial School for Girls, located at Bon Air, near here, will not be closed by the executive committee because of the indictment rendered by the Chesterfield county grand jury Monday, charging the members of the committee with maintaining a nuisance.

This indictment grows out of numerous outbreaks among the 38 girls of the institution, who terrified people living near to the school, and drove county officers away from the grounds by hurling stones and other missiles.

The executive committee of the institution is composed of Robert Lecky, Jr., Samuel P. Waddill, Rev. Geo. W. McDaniel and Rev. H. D. C. MacLachland. The offense for which the committee is indicted is punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000 and abatement of the nuisance.

STRUCK BY TRAIN AND KILLED.

Farmer's Death on Coast Line Railway is Being Investigated.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 22.—William Toler, a farmer of Chesterfield county, who lived alone in his home near Drewry's Bluff, was struck and killed by a northbound train in the Atlantic Coast Line Railway tracks two miles below South Richmond yesterday morning.

It is not known which engine struck the man, as engine No. 82 was due at that spot at 4:30 a. m., and engine No. 6 at 6:40 o'clock.

Officials of the railway company are trying to locate a cousin of the dead farmer who is said to reside in Oak Grove. The police of Oak Grove not knowing the cousin's name, are a loss to find the man, while Magistrate L. W. Cheatham, of Swansboro, is equally at sea concerning the dead man's relative.

"BLIND BEGGAR" CAN SEE GIRL.

Mendicant Will Now Have To Undergo Test as to Eyesight.

Bristol, Va., Oct. 22.—A stranger giving his name as John Randolph, and posing as a "blind beggar," is, it is reported, to have his eyes undergo a scientific test, as a means of determining whether or not he is a fraud.

It is related that a local policeman saw him remove the large smoked glasses from his eyes and look longingly after a blonde young female with a modern slit skirt.

He seemed to see plain enough when this tempting bit of femininity passed before his eyes.

Parade at Yorktown.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 22.—The three days' session of the Yorktown Historical Society, held annually at Yorktown, closed yesterday with a grand parade and exercises held at the site of the surrender, on October 19, 1781, of Lord Cornwallis and his army to Gen. George Washington. Hon. J. M. Stubbs introduced the speakers, Corporal B. James Tanner, of Washington, and Dr. James Southall Wilson, of William and Mary College. Hon. Conway H. Shields, vice-president of the society, presided. An interesting feature of the exercises was the reading by Col. Oswald Tilghman, of Maryland, of a diary kept during the siege of Yorktown by Col. Tench Tilghman, who was Gen. Washington's aide-de-camp. Eighteen companies of the United States Coast Artillery from Fortress Monroe and the sailors from the torpedo boat Bailey and tender Paducah, with the Coast Artillery Band took a prominent part in the parade.

ECHO OF THE DARK AGES.

The proceedings in the court in Kieff, were enemies of the Jewish race are attempting to foist the murder of a Christian boy on Israelites, savors of the dark ages when misguided men bathed their swords in the blood of the Hebrews supposing they were honoring the Diety.

It is said that this so-called trial will continue at least two weeks longer, by which time sentiment will be so rank against Israelites that in the end they will be forced to leave Russia.

The Hebrews have been targets of persecution almost since the dawn of history. The nucleus of the race, a little band of about seventy-five, men, women and children, after they had migrated to the land of the Pharoahs multiplied into three million souls when they were enslaved, beaten and ill-treated generally by cruel taskmasters. Their capital city later on was razed by the Babylonians and the race subsequently bore the Persian yoke, and became the prey of the Romans after suffering untold cruelty from Antiochus, Epiphanes and others.

Since the sacking of Jerusalem without a country, king or high priest and mingling with the civilized world, they have from time to time been the footballs for evil-disposed people, and now, in the twentieth century, charges of murdering Christian children, so often trumped up in the past, is again urged to the disgrace of the age in which we live.

The burning bush upon which Moses gazed is a fitting type of the race he represented—burning but not consumed. The Jews live on notwithstanding the hatred of those who would carry out what Haman attempted to do.

JUDGE WADDILL GIVES ADVICE.

Having remained in jail for six months without being brought to trial, Lloyd Sawyer, a 16-year-old white youth, was produced in the United States District Court in Richmond last week on Judge Edmund Waddill's order and the indictment against him dismissed. Sawyer was arrested in company with four other boys of his own age for breaking into a box car and stealing five pairs of shoes. In default of bail he has served a penal term while awaiting trial for the alleged crime. The case was called to Judge Waddill's attention on Tuesday and he was indignant that the boy had been thus punished for a crime of which they have not been found guilty.

A stinging reprimand for their conduct, wholesale advice for their future behavior and regret that their trial had been delayed, were contained in a brief talk the court made upon telling the boys to go and sin no more.

"Quit loafing. Go to work and work every day," said Judge Waddill. "Above all things, keep out of barrooms. And quit loafing in pool rooms if possible, they are worse for you than saloons. By the mercy of the court and the kindness of the prosecutor, you have just escaped being branded for life with the mark of a thief. Let this escape be an everlasting lesson to you. Remember that everything that does not belong to you belongs to some one else, so touch nothing but what you know is yours. But work; if you work you will keep out of trouble."

FAIR AT ARMORY HALL. (Communicated.)

An agreeable surprise is in store for all those who attend the fair at Armory Hall this week for the benefit of that most laudable institution, the Alexandria Hospital, which is the haven of all those who through misfortune and sickness are received within its portals—and which knows no creed or religion in the treatment of its patients. As one enters the doors of Armory Hall, a scene akin to fairyland opens upon one's vision. The booths are arranged to be emblematical of the 12 different months of the year, and vary from the snow and ice of Janusry to the loveliness of spring, and the bountifulness of summer and fall. The decorations of each is so beautiful that any particular discription would be invidious. They must each be seen to be fully appreciated, and they should be seen by every person residing in our city and vicinity, who has the interest of this institution at heart. The supper table is one of the attractions, where all that is good to eat can be secured, and prepared, as only those who preside over it know how. The Art Gallery which must be seen to be appreciated reflects much credit upon those who have spared no time or expense to secure such a valuable collection of the works of the "Great Masters." Each evening will find new musical entertainments, and on Friday night dancing will take place. An evening at the fair with its scene of beauty and its chaming and gaily dressed attendants, will fully repay one to say nothing of its object—the upbuilding of a noble institution—the new Alexandria Hospital.

MILITARY HONORS FOR "T. R."

Received With Salute by Highest Dignitaries of Brazil.

Rio Janeiro, Brail, Oct. 22.—Theodore Roosevlet was received with military honors as he stepped ashore steamer Vandyke ehere yesterday. Edwin V. Morgan, United States ambassador to Brazil, and of the staff of the embassy, went on board before the vessel docked with a reception committee, including Senor Barros Moreira, representing the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; Lieut-Col. Achilles de Podernairas, Brazillian attache at Washington; Don Jose Carlos Rodrigues, Admiral Antonio Cutiho Gomez Pereira and Antonio Alyntho de Magalhaes, of the Historical Institute.

The party disembarked at 8:30 o'clock on the arsenal quay, where a company of soldiers saluted while bands played the Brazilian and American national anthems. Several committees presented bouquets of flowers to Mrs. Roosevelt and Miss Margaret Roosevelt.

The procession, headed by Col. Roosevelt and the representatives of the president of Brazil, proceeded to a reception room in the naval arsenal, which was decorated with Brazilian flags and the Stars and Stripes intertwined. There Col. Roosevelt and the members of his party were introduced to the leading officials.

After the ceremony Colonel Roosevelt was conducted to the Guanabara Palace, where he will reside during his sojourn here.

All the newspapers published articles welcoming Roosevelt here.

Lisbon—An attempted royalist rising was frustrated. The police had been informed in advance of the plans of the plotters.

TO SUPPRESS ENTHUSIASM.

Huerta's Order is "Shoot to Kill" Over-Zealous Partisans.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, Oct. 22.—"Shoot to kill" is the order given out by Huerta today to police and soldiers who will patrol the streets of Vera Cruz to suppress over enthusiasm when Felix Diaz, candidate for the Mexican Presidency, arrives. Any overzealous partisanship in the name of Diaz will mean imediate death to the partisan.

Word was received this morning in official circles that General Diaz would be permitted to land without molestation, but that if there were any demonstration on the part of his followers, the troops, police, and army of private detectives should immediately check it with a volley of lead.

Colonel Vidaurrazaga, secretary to General Blanquet, the minister of war, is aboard the gunboat Zaragoza. The gunboat has steam up and unless the orders are changed will run alongside the Concovado before she docks. Colonel Vidaurrazaga will request General Diaz to counsel his partisans to maintain good order.

MAN HAS RIGHT TO HUG WIFE

Magistrate, Dismisses Couple Arrested by Policeman.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—"Tis no crime for a man to hug his wife, so you're both discharged; but, mind you, be careful that you don't hug too tight in the future, or you'll land in the cooler." Thus spoke Magistrate Beicher to James and Katherine Kearns yesterday and the man shook his head gravely and answered:

"I promise."

Policeman O'Brien was passing the Kearns home Monday evening, when his meditations were interrupted by a shrill scream of "Murder!" The blue coat rushed into the house, revolver in hand. Before him he beheld Mr. and Mrs. Kearns in the throes of the "bunny hug."

"You're under arrest," said O'Brien and straightway marched them off to the station house. There Mrs. Kearns explained that her husband hugged her so tight she feared it would crack her ribs.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Faces of sweethearts, wives, and babies of Illionis Central trainmen no longer will beam from the crystal of their watches. "Suppose an engineer lifts open the case of his watch to see the time and sees his best girl's face," said Vice-President Park, explaining the new order yesterday. "His attention is distracted for a moment, and we may have a wreck. It's the little things that count."

Dr. Phillip Uhler, for many years provost of the Peabody Institute, Baltimore, and widely known in scientific circles throughout the country died yesterday. He was 70 years old, and had been an invalid for the last two years. Dr. Uhler was the author of many contributions to scientific journals in the United States and England.

GET TO THE CAUSE.

Alexandria People Are Learning the Way.

There is but little peace or comfort for the man or woman wth a bad back. The distress begins in early morning—keeps up throughout the day. It's hard to get out of bed, it's torture to stoop or straighten. Plasters and liniments may relieve but cannot cure if the cause is inside—the kidneys. When suffering so, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the tested and proven kidney remedy, used in kidney troubles for over 50 years. Doan's Kidney Pills are recommended by thousands of just such cases. Proof of their effectiveness in the testimony of this Alexandria resident:

Mrs. Nettie G. Davis, 425 Lee street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I can give Doan's Kidney Pills my highest endorsement. I was cured by them of constant backache, lameness in my loins and dizzy spells. This remedy also strengthened my kidneys."

A Second Statement.

Mrs. Davis was interviewed on March 27, 1912, and she said: "You may continue using the endorsement I gave several years ago. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occassionally with the most satisfactory results."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some poor over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

NEGRO QUESTION.

House of Deputies of Episcopal Church Deliberates on Racial Question.

New York, Oct. 22.— A heated debate over the negro question in the South enlivened the deliberations of the House of Deputies of the Protestant Episcopal church at yesterday's session of the General Convention.

A majority report by the committee on racial episcopate, with recommendations against the proposal to establish separate churches, dioceses, clergy and bishops for Southern negroes, was presented. A minority report advocating the separation of the races and the appointment of negro bishops to sit in the house of Bishops with powers equal to the whites also was presented. Amid a storm of discussion the house finally made consideration of both reports the order of business for the afternoon session yesterday, limiting debate on each side to half an hour. A lossof more than 16,900 pupils within the last three years from the Sunday schools of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States was reported to the General Conventon by the Committee on the State of the Church. The report asserts that the S unday schools throughout the country had on their rolls today fewer names than they had in 1910.

Apparently there is a loss of 926 in the number confirmed since 1910," the report continued. "There are also fewer children in parochial schools.

The divorce question came up in the convention today, the house of deputies by resolution deciding to cooperate with the "international committee on marriage and divorce" in arranging for an international congress to deal with the subject. The congress ta obe held in May, 1915, at the Panama Exposition in San Francisco, for the purpose in the language of the resolution, "of awakening the conscience of the American people toword the great evil of divorce and remarriage." The resolution was adopted without opposition.

Before the opening of the meeting yesterday, the deputies, in executive session, concurred in the election of the five missionary bishops chosen by the house of bishops yesterday

A resolution introduced several days ago by the Rev. Dr. Freeman, deputy from Minnesota, intended to further religious training in the public schools, was adopted by the house of deputies.

The general board is instructed as a means to this end, "to take prompt action to promote the daily reading of a portion of the Holy Scriptures in all public schools." Both this resolution and that on marriage and divorce must be concurred in by the House of Bishops before becoming effective.

ANXIETY FOR W. A. JONES.

Health Has Not Improved and Condition Feared by Friends to be Serious.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Considerable anxiety is felt here today regarding Representative William A. Jones' health, following the receipt of a telegrom from him requesting his private secretary to meet him when the Norfolk boat arrived yesterday morning.

He has been in bad health for several months, and frequent prolonged visits to New York, where he consulted specialists have resulted in no appreciable improvement. His secretary today declared that Mr. Jones' ailment is muscular rheumatism, which affects his feet and hands. From other sources it is learned his trouble has been declared by physicians to be hardening of the arteries.

Mr. Jones left for his home several weeks ago, and reports received since then have stated that he has been constantly confined to his bed. There has been a marked absence of optimism regarding his condition, and it is believed that when he arrives tomorrow he will go direct to Georgetown hospital for treatment.

SITUATION IN PORTUGAL.

Rioting in Lisbon, Oporto and Other Places—Dispatches Censored.

London, Oct. 22.—All Portuguese news dispatches today were heavily censored and few details of the alleged rioting in Lisbon, Oporto and elsewhere leaked through, but it was said that the situation is serious. The Portguese premier, Senor Costa, telegraphed the legation here that order has been restored.

Vigo, Spain, Oct. 22.—Portuguese travelers coming from the direction of Lisbon today reported that serious royalist disorders broke out yesterday. They said that many men of the army and navy joined the demonstrators against the republic. One man said that the captain of the Fifth Artillery was killed in a riot.

Damage by Storm.

Petersburg. Va., Oct. 22.—It is learned from dispatches from adjacent counties that considerable damage was done by the heavy windstorm throughout the Southside Monday. A well known trucker of Chesterfield county stated this morning that he had traveled a distance of twenty miles in the county after the storm and found corn and peanut shocks blown down all along the way. The peanuts he said were strewn in every direction, and it is understood that the same conditions exist in both Dinwiddie and Prince George counties.
